

MANY SENATORS HEAR MESSAGE

Give Particular Attention To Roosevelt's Recommendations Given This Morning.

COMPLETELY REVIEWS SITUATION

Discusses Lynching--Capital And Labor--Employees' Hours--Control Of Corporations--Inheritance And Income--Merchant Marine And Army And Navy.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.—President Roosevelt's annual message occupied the attention of the senate as soon as the opening preliminaries were concluded today. Many senators were in their seats and the message received careful attention. Speaker Cannon today announced the promotion of Cousins of Iowa to the chairmanship of the House committee on foreign affairs and Louden of Illinois to the committee on foreign affairs to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Hitt of Illinois.

President Roosevelt in his annual message again urges the enactment of a law prohibiting corporations from contributing to campaign funds. He also urges the passage of the measure conferring upon the government the right of appeal in criminal cases on questions of law. Continuing, the president says:

I cannot too strongly urge the passage of the bill in question. A failure to pass it will result in seriously hampering the government in its effort to obtain justice, especially against wealthy individuals or corporations who do wrong, and may also prevent the government from obtaining justice for wage-workers who are not themselves able effectively to contest a case where the judgment of an inferior court has been against them. I have specifically in view a recent decision by a district judge leaving railway employees without remedy for violation of a certain so-called labor statute. The importance of enacting into law the particular bill in question is further increased by the fact that the government has now definitely begun a policy of resorting to the criminal law in those trust and interstate commerce cases where such a course offers a reasonable chance of success.

Proper Use of Injunctions.
In my last message I suggested the enactment of a law in connection with the issuance of injunctions, attention having been sharply drawn to the matter by the demand that the right of applying injunctions in labor cases should be wholly abolished. It is at least doubtful whether a law abolishing altogether the use of injunctions in such cases would stand the test of the courts, in which case, of course, the legislation would be ineffective. Moreover, I believe it would be wrong altogether to prohibit the use of injunctions. It is criminal to permit sympathy for criminals to weaken our hands in upholding the law, and if men seek to destroy life or property by mob violence there should be no impairment of the power of the courts to deal with them in the most summary and effective way possible. But so far as possible the abuse of the power should be provided against by some such law as I advocated last year.

Against Lynching.
I call your attention to the prevalence of crime among us and, above all, to the epidemic of lynching and mob violence that springs up now in one part of our country, now in another. Each section, north, south, east or west, has its own faults. No section can with wisdom spend its time fearing at the faults of another section. It should be busy trying to amend its own shortcomings. To deal with the crime of corruption it is necessary to have an awakened public conscience and to supplement this by whatever legislation will add speed and certainty in the execution of the law. When we deal with lynching even more is necessary. A great many white men are lynched, but the crime is peculiarly frequent in respect to black men. The greatest existing cause of lynching is the perpetration, especially by black men, of the hideous crime of rape, the most abominable in all the category of crimes, even worse than murder.

Lawlessness grows by what it feeds upon, and when mobs begin to lynch for rape they speedily extend the sphere of their operations and lynch for many other kinds of crimes, so that two-thirds of the lynchings are not for rape at all, while a considerable proportion of the individuals lynched are innocent of all crime.

There is no question of social equality or negro domination involved. In my judgment, the crime of rape should always be punished with death, as is the case with murder. Assault with intent to commit rape should be made a capital crime, at least in the discretion of the court, and provision should be made by which the punishment may follow immediately upon the heels of the offense.

No more shortsighted policy can be imagined than in the fancied interest of one class to prevent the education of another class. The white man, if he is wise, will decline to allow the negroes in a mass to grow to manhood and womanhood without education.

"Preachers of Mere Discontent."
In dealing with both labor and capital, with the questions affecting both corporations and trades unions, there is one matter more important to remember than ought else, and that is the infinite harm done by preachers of mere discontent. These are the men who seek to excite a violent class hatred against all men of wealth. They seek to turn wise and proper movements for the better control of corporations and for doing away with the abuses connected with wealth into a campaign of hysterical excitement and falsehood in which the aim is to inflame to madness the brutal passions of mankind. The sinister demagogues and foolish visionaries who are always eager to undertake such a campaign of destruction sometimes seek to associate themselves with those working for a genuine reform in governmental and social methods and sometimes masquerade as such reformers. In reality they are the worst enemies of the cause they profess to advocate, just as the purveyors of sensational slander in newspaper or magazine are the worst enemies of all men who are engaged in an honest effort to better what is bad in our social and governmental conditions.

Corruption is never so rife as in communities where the demagogue and the agitator bear full sway, because in such communities all moral bands become loosened, and hysteria and sensationalism replace the spirit of sound judgment and fair dealing as between man and man. In sheer revolt against the squalid anarchy thus produced men are sure in the end to turn toward any leader who can restore order, and then their relief at being free from the intolerable burdens of class hatred, violence and demagoguery is such that they cannot for some time be aroused to indignation against misdeeds by men of wealth, so that they permit a new growth of the very abuses which were in part responsible for the original outbreak. The one hope for success for our people lies in a resolute and fearless but sane and cool headed advance along the path marked out last year by this very congress. There must be a stern refusal to be misled into following either that base creature who appeals and panders to the lowest instincts and passions in order to arouse one set of Americans against their fellows or that other creature, equally base, but no baser, who in a spirit of greed or to accumulate or add to an already huge fortune seeks to exploit his fellow Americans with callous disregard to their welfare of soul and body. The man who debauches others in order to obtain a high office, stands on an evil equality of corruption with the man who debauches others for financial profit, and when hatred is sown the crop which springs up can only be evil.

The plain people who think—the mechanics, farmers, merchants, workers with head or hand, the men to whom American traditions are dear, who love their country and try to act decently by their neighbors—owe it to themselves to remember that the most damaging blow that can be given popular government is to elect an unworthy and sinister agitator on a platform of violence and hypocrisy.

SHORT MESSAGE WILL DRAW PENSION OF BE MADE THIS YEAR

Governor Davidson Will Not Tell Coming Legislature What They Must Do.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 4.—Governor Davidson is writing a message to the Wisconsin legislature which is expected to be the shortest that has been sent to a Wisconsin legislature since the time of Governor Peck and Scofield. The last three Wisconsin messages, written by Governor La Follette, were longer than messages by the president to congress, and Governor Davidson desires to be in marked contrast. He also desires to contrast with La Follette in another respect, that of leaving proposed legislation to the judgment of the legislature instead of devoting the message to lengthy argument on political bills. Governor Davidson declares that he will simply in his message propose the new laws he hopes to see enacted but the legislature must do the rest without executive urging.

The association is also working for the establishment of a bureau of immigration to encourage a desirable class of Europeans and Northerners to remove to Alabama.

ANOTHER MARTIN

Pension Bureau Discovers Wrong Man Has Been Receiving the Money.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., Dec. 4.—The United States grand jury here today took up the consideration of one of the most unusual cases of alleged fraud that has ever worried the pension officials at Washington. The case is that of John Martin of Marlborough, a gray-haired veteran of the civil war. According to the evidence of witnesses the accused has defrauded the government out of about $4,000 by setting up as his own record, the civil war record of John Martin of Uxbridge. The accused is said to have confessed to the deception and to have admitted he falsely represented himself as John Martin of Uxbridge, a member of Co. D, 4th Massachusetts Cavalry, who was wounded in the hip and captured by the Confederates at Magdolia, Fla., and sent to Andersonville. He was pensioned in 1879 and arrears were paid to him back to the time he claimed he had been wounded.

The Marlboro John Martin is alleged to have drawn the pension until 1909, when he received a letter from the Uxbridge John Martin, who was then in Scotland, informing him that the writer intended to apply for a pension and requesting him to assist in securing it. As a result of that letter the defendant made a trip to Scotland and then the Uxbridge John Martin is said to have discovered the deception that had been worked on him and the government by the use of his name. The Marlboro John Martin agreed to remit the pension to the Uxbridge John Martin in Scotland and he did this until last June when his failure to do so led to the exposure of the alleged fraud and the matter being brought to the attention of the federal authorities.

NEW MINISTRY HAS A ROYAL SANCTION

Alfonso Says That He Has Accepted the New Cabinet Just Formed.

Madrid, Dec. 4.—King Alfonso has approved of the new ministry under the premiership of the Marquis de Armiño, in which General Weyler resumes his old post of minister of war.

The populace of Madrid is still greatly excited over the cabinet crisis. The anti-clerical manifestations continued throughout the night. The police were compelled to charge the crowds and many persons were injured, among them the grand-vicar of the bishop of Madrid, who was hit with a stone. About two thousand women of the aristocracy have petitioned the King against the law of associations.

PURE WATER COSTS MUCH IN NEW YORK

New York is Making Plans for a Grand System of Water-works.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Dec. 4.—The first practical step toward the construction of New York's proposed new $161,000,000 water system was taken today when bids were closed for the building of the first section of the huge aqueduct which is designed to convey an adequate supply of pure water from the heart of the Catskill mountains to the metropolis. The construction of this great aqueduct is spoken of as an engineering feat worthy of comparison with the building of the Panama canal. The first section is to be ten miles in length and it is estimated it will require four years to complete it. It will extend from Hunter's brook, in Westchester county, to a point just beyond Peekskill. Five million dollars is the estimated cost of the one section.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO FIGHT THE MEASURE

Meet in Madison This Week—Will Discuss Philippine Measure in Detail.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 4.—Tobacco growers and dealers of Wisconsin will meet here this week to renew their protest against the proposed tariff regulations with the Philippines, which will reduce the duty on tobacco grown by the less expensive labor of the far eastern islands. The Wisconsin tobacco men believe that if the tariff on Philippine tobacco is reduced it will subject Wisconsin labor to competition with cheap Malay labor, and the protest will accordingly be made. A year ago such a protest was adopted, but this time more aggressive will be the complaint, as it is desired to get the Wisconsin legislature to adopt a memorial to congress, setting forth the opposition of this state to change in the tariff regulations with the Philippines. The sugar beet growers are in sympathy with the tobacco men.

THOUGHT TEACHER SHOULD BE JANITOR

Rock County School Board Convention Discussed Building of Fires.

Whether or not the rural school teacher should build her own fire and do other janitor work about the school buildings was one of the questions that troubled some of those school board clerks who attended the first Rock county district convention in the high school here yesterday. There were several who openly expressed themselves as of the opinion that the teacher, even if she be but a girl not out of her teens, should build the fires. One instance was given, of where a teacher by her ignorance of such work had burned down a school house, but the best retort to the antiquated school directors was given by Miss Fessenden of Evansville, who said: "Well, we can build the fires alright, but you can't expect us to do much teaching in the little time we have between holding the stove-pipe up and keeping the stove door on."

THE SKIDOO PROBLEM

A coin collector has an accumulation of pennies. He told his son he would make him a present of the entire lot if he would put them in boxes, the same number in each box.
There was an odd number of pennies so that if he put an equal number in each of two boxes there would be one penny left over; in a like manner he figured on 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 boxes, but in every case if he put an equal number in each box there would be one (only one) penny left over. The son gave it up and told his father he thought it impossible to perform the feat. His father replied: "SKIDOO—23 for you." The son then put the entire lot of pennies in 23 boxes, the same number in each box. How many pennies were there?
To make the problem plain: The entire number of pennies was a number, which if divided by any number from 2 to 23 inclusive there will be a remainder of one (only one) and if divided by 23 there will be no remainder.

Dear Editor: I think I have the correct answer to your "Skidoo problem." The smallest number of pennies he could put into any number of boxes from 2 to 22 and have one left over would be the L. C. M. of all the numbers from 2 to 22 inclusive (232,792,560) plus 1 penny. Divided 232,792,560 by 23 and we have 10,121,415 with a remainder of 15. 3x15 plus one is a multiple of 23. Therefore 3x232,792,560 (698,377,680) plus 1 equals 698,377,681, the smallest number which is exactly divisible by any number between 2 and 22 will have one for a remainder.

LOWER RATES FOR THE SHORT HAULS

Sugar Beet Interests Are Directly Benefited by the Decision of Railroad Rate Commission.
Careful examination of the decision of the state railroad rate commission with respect to the rates on sugar beets shows that the greatest reduction is on the largest part of the business, on the traffic of not more than 25 miles. This is almost the entire traffic, for most of the patrons of a factory are situated within 25 miles of the plant. For longer distances the rates are proportionately less, but the reduction was not so great in proportion as for the short distances. The complaints were to the effect that the rates charged for this service by the Omaha, St. Paul, Northwestern, Illinois Central and Wisconsin Central were discriminatory and excessive and illegal, and that the rules enforced in regard to the minimum load required on every car were unjust and illegal. On these complaints it was held by the commission that every contention was justly made excepting that of the Rock County Sugar company at Janesville against the Illinois Central road. It was therefore ordered that lower rates be charged, that the companies enter into joint rate agreements, and that the minimum car load be not more than 30,000 pounds. Most of the moving traffic of beets is within 25 miles. The old rate for 25 miles or less was 50 cents a ton, and this was reduced to 40 cents. The old rate for hauls of 26 to 50 miles was 60 cents, which was reduced to 50 cents. Much favorable comment is heard in Madison on the effective manner in which the complaints of the growers and manufacturers were handled by Attorney M. G. Jeffris of Janesville.

INVOKES MUSE TO TURN DOWN OFFICE

J. Bill Bates Prefers Practice of Law to Sitting on Bodies of Those Who Come to Death Unnaturally.
Attorney J. William Bates of Beloit, corner-elect of Rock county, has filed his account of election expenses with Register of Deeds Wierick and at the same time declined to accept the proffered honor of sitting upon the remains of those who come to unnatural deaths in the county during the next two years. He still prefers the practice of law and in telling the government of the state of Wisconsin about it sends the result of an invocation of the muse. It runs as follows: Not a cent for tribute, but millions for defense. Said an old-time writer, but now I am on the fence. Yes, I am elected to the office of coroner. But it was five hundred votes I ran behind the governor.
No cigars, no treats of liquor, not a postage stamp nor card. Not a cent to get the office, in which the duties are so hard. Since that many voters out me, perhaps they will always rout. If I should take that office, so I guess I will stay out.

WISCONSIN SEED LEAF CROP SHORT

Result is That There is Greater Demand for Maryland Tobacco Than Ever Before.
Baltimore, Md., Dec. 4.—One or more buyers from Pennsylvania has been here from time to time eagerly buying suitable stock and this fact has encouraged the Maryland growers in the belief that their market will soon be a prominent one. The new buying has not had any effect on the prices but has increased the quick sale of the crop and tends to give an early money return to the growers. The scarcity of "seed leaf" in the state is said to cause the demand for tobacco from this city. This tobacco is made into cigars and is produced principally in Connecticut, New York, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania. All these states had, short crops of seed leaf tobacco with the result that the manufacturers have been compelled to obtain outside stock. Leaf dealers here say that the increased consumption of cigars in the United States requires more of the natural product. It is said that fully 2,000 hogheads of the Maryland tobacco crop of the past season was used in the manufacture of cigars. A dealer in touch with the situation says the increased demand for Maryland tobacco will encourage the establishment of additional factories here. It is also reported that the intruding buyers are going so far as to engage cigar tobacco in the growing sections, long before harvest time.
Up to date 29,159 hogheads of Maryland grown tobacco have been received from the growers, 29,083 hogheads of which have been sold. The bulk of the crop in Maryland is grown in Anne Arundel, Prince George, Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's counties and it is estimated that three thousand farmers are engaged in its production. The average crop in this state is about thirty-three thousand hogheads, but this year there has been a decrease in production. Maryland tobacco brings from 5 to 11 cents a pound.

Don't Let Your Piles Grow

Every Hemorrhoidal Ulcer is a Fertile Field for Cancer and Other Deadly Diseases.

TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.
Constitution unchecked brings inflammation, inflammation begets piles and piles too often superinduce tumors of malignant nature.

It is almost folly to allow this condition to continue. If you have piles the veins of the rectum are congested, and the excessive straining of the abdominal walls to force a passage in many cases leads to rupture and cracking of the tissues.
There is no greater suffering than this. If you are a sufferer from piles you know it. It is foolish to think that any amount of cathartics will relieve you. On the contrary purgatives are favorable to the production of hemorrhoids. Do not be deceived either by the illusion that an operation always cures. It sometimes does, but the agony of the operation is too great to warrant the experiment, except as a last resort.

There is only one natural way to cure piles. There are medicaments which together heal the mucous membrane of the bowels and rectum and give it life. The Pyramid Pile Cure Co. have prepared suppositories convenient for insertion into the affected part and containing the soothing, healing, invigorating medicines needed to effect a quick and permanent cure. That these do cure piles is proved by the voluntary testimonials of thousands.
By every mail we get letters like this:
"Wishing to give credit where credit is due, I feel it my duty to humanity—as well as yourselves—to write you regarding your pile remedy. I have not finished my first box and am now well. After the first treatment of Pyramid Pile Cure, the soreness left, and the swellings have kept decreasing. I also used your pills and am feeling like myself again. Thanking you kindly, I am, yours truly, C. Crowley, 170 9th Ave., Seattle, Wash."

KICKERS' KOLUM.
Janesville, Wis., Dec. 3, 1906.
Editor Gazette: In our little telephone discussion, when you say very little is saved to business men who find it necessary to employ both telephone and pen, you overlook the fact that one can have both: phones for fifty cents per month less than he used to pay for the Bell alone, and has some 2,500 connections where he had but a few over 300 before there was competition. As the value of a telephone depends upon the number of people one can reach, it stands to reason that the saving is far more than 50 cents per month. If it was worth $4.00 per month to reach 300 telephones, why is it not worth eight times that sum to reach 2,500?

I will admit that the Bell company gives excellent long distance service, but it did not give it before competition came in; its long distance service was very poor up to ten years ago, although it had been operating for many years.
Experience proves that only about ten per cent of telephone subscribers care for long distance service at all; they want to reach the butcher, the baker, the grocer and their neighbors. Of the ten per cent who desire long distance service, seven per cent of them only care to reach towns within a radius of forty miles. The other three per cent want to reach points more distant. As the Rock County Telephone lines reach almost every town within fifty miles of Janesville and many further off, it is giving satisfactory long distance service to about ninety-seven per cent of its subscribers and it is only a matter of a short time before it will give them Milwaukee, Chicago, and many other places that it does not now reach.

I will admit that the Ideal system would be one telephone exchange that reached all telephone subscribers, provided one could have the service at a reasonable rate. But experience teaches that it cannot be had. The old saying "competition is the life of trade" applies to the telephone business as well as any other.

The Rock County Telephone exchange is owned wholly by Janesville citizens and the money paid for its telephones is spent in Janesville, not sent to Boston. The Gazette has a slogan "Buy it in Janesville." Why not let it apply to telephones as well as dry goods, furniture, carpets, etc.?
RICHARD VALENTINE.
The Gazette has nothing to add to what has already been said. If the Rock County Telephone exchange will become a part of the general system by acquiring a sub-license from the Wisconsin Telephone Company, as many independent companies are doing, it will add to its strength and efficiency.

BRODHEAD HOST IS AGAIN SINGLE MAN

Third Wife of John A. Young, Well Known Here, Secured Decree of Divorce.
John A. Young of Brodhead, well known in Janesville and a man acquainted far and wide, being a veteran hotel keeper, is again a single man, his third wife, Maria J. Young, having secured a decree of divorce from him before Judge Stevens of Madison. Along with the freedom Mrs. Young was given $4,000 in alimony, her husband's wealth being placed at $100,000. At the trial Mrs. Young gave her age as 51, but she did not look that old, while Mr. Young appeared to be all of 73. The plaintiff charged cruelty, stating that she was told that it was her duty to attend to the furnace and do all of the hard work around the house, which included the carrying of water and the emptying of slops. Mrs. Young informed the court in her complaint that she was an eastern business woman, and that her marriage to Young necessitated the selling of her business, which the plaintiff regarded as a loss of about $2,000. But when she decided to become the wife of Young it was with the feeling that she would be comfortably situated and well taken care of. Young represented to her, she said, that his home was elegantly furnished and that he had much wealth. He said that in his home was silverware valued at several hundred dollars. But, testified Mrs. Young, it was all a fairy tale. The home was fitted up with shabby furniture, there was no silverware, unless a few cheap articles in plate might be taken for silver. The handle of the tea pot was tied on with a rag, and holes in cooking utensils were stuffed with rags. When Mrs. Young paid 90 cents for a tea pot and three tin pans her husband accused her of being extravagant.

ARE LAYING FOR A CHANCE TO EVEN UP

Members of the Legislature Have Their Knives Sharpened for the Faculty Members.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 4.—A various movement to "trim the university" has been in progress among a number of members-elect of the next legislature of Wisconsin, and will make its fight on the bill proposed by the legislative committee of the board of university regents for an appropriation of $50,000 for the establishment of a medical college. Two years ago the university sought a permanent, continuing appropriation to relieve its officers from the necessity of coming to each successive legislature asking for "begging for money" and this was granted upon the promise that no additional sums would be asked. It has become known that a strong coterie of members have planned to "raise Cain" with the professors.

BANKS ARE FILLED WITH MONEY TODAY

Era of Prosperity Has Swept Over the Entire State This Winter.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 4.—The banks of Wisconsin are overflowing with money, which has been coming in in unprecedented deposits from the prosperous people of the state. The primary cause is believed to be the abundant crops and the prevailing high prices that the farmers receive for their products. State Commissioners of Banking, M. C. Bergh has compiled statistics showing a comparison of the conditions in the banks under his jurisdiction November 12 and September 4. Deposits have increased over $4,000,000 in the ten weeks between the two reports. The only difficulty in the situation seems to be that the bankers have so much money on hand that they are embarrassed to find enough good security upon which to loan it, and a large increase in the amount of bond holdings is the result.

JURY YESTERDAY ACQUITTED TRACY

Of Any Direct Responsibility for the Death by Drowning of Little Willie McLaughlin.
Late yesterday afternoon the jury trying the action of the State vs. Alva Tracy brought in a verdict of "not guilty." The charge on which the defendant was tried was the aiming and discharging of a gun with the result that Willie McLaughlin jumped overboard from a boat and was drowned in the Rock river last Labor Day. Tracy's contention was that he fired in the air simply to frighten the boys and persuade them to surrender his property.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.
Frederick Mannell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 4, '05, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause, and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally, baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 30c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. J. P. Baker, Special Agent.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Janesville woman knew how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Janesville woman's words:

"Mrs. Annie Finnegan, of 208 South River street, Janesville, Wis., says:

"I was almost helpless with pains in the small of my back and general physical weakness due to kidney trouble. I could not stoop and get straight again without taking hold of something, and finally I got so bad that I could not attend to my household work. About this time my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at the People's Drug company. I used them and they cured me. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a wonderful cure for backache and kidney troubles."

THE FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS
It is not reasonable to suppose that the congress, now in session, will accomplish very much by way of legislation. The session expires by limitation on the fourth of March, and the members who were defeated at the last election will very naturally feel but little interest in the short session.

The tariff question, which is likely to be more or less prominent in the next campaign, will not receive much attention. The republican majority, in the House, has been greatly reduced, and many members who are returned, barely pulled through.

The fact is generally recognized that the work of the President, and his anxiety to close the work of his administration with a republican congress, saved several members from defeat.

This fact imposes an obligation, and places the 59th congress very largely in the hands of the chief executive, and while the policy which he outlines may not be carried out to the letter, it will influence legislation in marked degree.

The President has shown a disposition to be the commander in chief of every department, in fact as well as in name, and he is in better position today to exercise authority than ever before.

It is fortunate for the nation that he is usually right, for power and popularity combined, are dangerous elements. The people are waiting to know what the outcome of the Brownsville, Texas, episode will be, an investigation being ordered by the senate yesterday.

Public sympathy is with the discharged soldiers, and public sentiment is against the action of the President, which is generally regarded as impulsive and hasty. It is possible when all the facts are known that the extreme measures used will be endorsed.

The republican party is in power, and the best good of the country demands that it continue in control, but the wisdom displayed by its leaders, will determine how long the party shall be permitted to administer affairs of government.

The spirit of unrest is widespread, and the doctrines of socialism are more popular today than ever before. The democratic party in 1908 will be a Bryan party, while the republican party is so heavily besieged, that it will be scared beyond recognition, unless loyalty, develops, and common sense prevails.

To with the party, is the slogan of all reformers, and nothing is offered as a substitute. It is an era of destruction, so far as parties are concerned, and if the disease becomes epidemic it may mean demoralization to government.

The success of the republic depends upon the rule of a majority of its best citizens, and their united action can only be effected through party organization. This is why parties and measures are more important than men.

The independent voter is a unit and delusion. He may be a good man, but his influence is wasted because not concentrated through organization.

The congress now in session is confronted with the responsibility of holding in line the forces now in control, not forgetting the fact the campaign of 1908 is not far distant.

THE OPEN SHOP

The annual convention of the National Industrial Association, has been in session for the past two days. This is the organization which has had so much to do in establishing the open shop, and it is stronger today than ever before. It is represented by branches in all the large, and many of the smaller, cities, and its membership comprises most of the manufacturers and many working men.

The president, C. W. Post, delivered his annual address yesterday, and it contains many interesting facts concerning labor conditions, as they exist today, and indicates that a radical change of sentiment is taking place in the labor world.

The closed shop is being relegated to the past, and in place of it is being established the principle of a right to work, by any man in any field where opportunity presents. The following great industries have become open shop:

United States government shops.
Carnegie Steel company.
National Tube company.
Wm. Cramp & Sons Shipbuilding Co.
Pressed Steel Car company.
Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co.
Union Switch & Signal company.
American Locomotive company.
Baldwin Locomotive company.
Pennsylvania railroad shops.
Port Wayne railroad shops.
Baltimore & Ohio railroad shops.
Grand Trunk railway shops.
National Cash Register company.
American Can Co.
International Harvester company.
Deering Harvester company.
American Steel Foundry company.
The Crane company.
The Illinois Steel company.
The Pullman company.
Allis-Chalmers company.
American Radiator company.
United States Cast Iron, Pipe & Foundry company.
American Brake Shoe & Foundry company.
Midvale Steel company.

Only a few are named out of a vast list of industries now free from the stifling conditions of the "closed shop."

This closed-shop plan has been pressed upon the workmen and employers by labor trust managers in their efforts to obtain and maintain absolute control of affairs. By the trust, and incidentally secure heavy contributions to the trust. That it is not always popular even with members of the labor unions is shown by the act of the workmen in the National Cash Register works in Dayton, Ohio.

Trouble and strikes, were of common occurrence in that institution under the closed-shop arrangement until the situation became absolutely unbearable; the announcement was made by the owners that a secret ballot would be taken among the workmen for and against the closed shop, and in spite of the appeals of one of the labor trust managers, William O'Connell, third vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, and president of the National Machinists' union, the men voted for an open shop by a tremendous majority.

Great credit must be accorded to John Kirby, Jr., and A. C. Marshall, both well-known citizens of Dayton, for their active efforts in combating the destructive methods of the closed shop, which for a time threatened the annihilation of many of the industries of Dayton, where today under the open-shop arrangement the factories are running steadily, the city prosperous and workmen busy, well paid and contented, except the few agitators and interested labor trust members still seeking to stir up strife.

The action of the workmen in the National Cash Register works at Dayton, in voting for the open shop, shows the sentiment which exists among the rank and file of organized labor, and proves that when the agitator and walking delegate are driven from the field, that discontent in labor circles will rapidly disappear.

There is in the treasury, of the Republican National committee, a balance of some $400,000, carried over from the campaign of 1902. President Roosevelt wants the committee to turn back to the life insurance companies $148,000, contributed by them. This Mr. Cortelyou and Mr. Bliss refuse to do.

While the opera-house is not a philanthropic institution, it is a credit to the city, and worthy of support. The entertainment tonight is one of the best on the road, and well worth enjoying.

Cornelius Shea may be a good agitator, but he is a poor representative of honest labor, and it is well for the unions that he is being exposed.

ACCUSES THE PHYSICIANS

COUNSEL FOR CHESTER GILLETTE MAKES HARSH CHARGES.

Says Medical Witnesses Agreed to Suppress Some Facts—Hot Reply by Prosecuting Attorney.

Herkimer, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Never before in the history of Herkimer county justice has the closing scenes of a murder trial been characterized by such bitter attacks of counsel as developed in the summing up of the Gillette case Monday. Replete as the trial has been with surprises and sensations, none was prepared for the sharp exchange with which the day closed. Judge Devendorf had expected to give the case to the jury Monday, but after District Attorney Ward had spoken for 15 minutes the court was adjourned until Tuesday morning.

Former Senator A. M. Mill, a close personal and political friend of the prosecutor, made the last appeal to the jury to acquit Chester E. Gillette of the murder of Grace Brown, at Big Moose Lake July 11. He had occupied nearly the whole of the session and was late in the day when he dramatically declared that the five physicians who had sworn that there was a blood clot on Grace Brown's brain had sworn to a falsehood; that they had gotten together and agreed upon a common story for the witness stand and deliberately withheld testimony favorable to his client.

Intimating that the physicians were improperly influenced, he added: "If there is an investigation of graft some of these five doctors may figure in it. They were paid large fees to give evidence, which it was thought was so prepared that it would convict this boy. I charge here now—and I know personally, each of the physicians—that they did not bring in all the facts; they did not report something favorable to this boy. Each of these doctors knew that a fraud was being perpetrated. You can't pick out five reputable physicians in the county who would such a thing as these doctors."

As Senator Mills concluded, District Attorney Ward jumped to his feet and interrupting the judge, who had decided upon an adjournment, launched into a scathing denunciation of Senator Mills and the methods he had taken to sway the jury over to the defense. As he spoke the outstretched and trembling hand of the prosecutor shook in the face of the counsel for the defense.

MAN IS SOLD FOR $10.

Convict So Lazy That Few Want Him at Legal Auction.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Dec. 4.—Dock Aubury, who was convicted of vagrancy and who was ordered sold into servitude for nine months, according to the law of the state, was disposed of at public auction Monday afternoon to J. Johnson, a farmer, for the sum of $10. Dock's reputation for general shiftlessness was such that even the most strenuous efforts of the sheriff were not sufficient to bring out many bids, the report having gone forth that his ability to consume food was out of all proportion to his capacity for work.

New Mexico Official Indicted.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 4.—Before adjourning Monday night the federal grand jury probing coal land frauds in northern New Mexico returned two indictments for perjury and subornation of perjury against Dr. J. H. Sloan Terry, superintendent of insurance in connection with coal land entries in Santa Fe and Sandoval counties.

Sioux City, Iowa, Dec. 4.—In the district court here Monday, Myron Clark, confessed wife murderer, received a life sentence in the penitentiary at Anamosa.

His Strong Point.

A little boy was on his knees recently at night and auntie, staying at the house, was present. "It is a pleasure," she said to him afterward, "to hear you saying your prayers so well. You speak so earnestly and seriously and mean what you say and care about it." "Ah!" he answered, "ah, but, auntie, you should hear me gargle!"

Answer Was Ready.
William P. Lang, familiarly known as "Bill," the veteran auctioneer of Tilton, N. H., is very bald. One day while he was officiating at an auction a would-be smart fellow interrupted the proceedings by calling out, "Say, mister, if a fly should light on your head he would slip up." Quick as thought "Bill" replied, "If a fly should light on your head he would slump through."

Modern Robin Hoods.
In England nothing has taken the place of the native genius for archery. Perhaps the reason is that the old skill of wrist and eye is turned on to games, and we have lost not a quality, but a proper exercise for it. Soon, it is to be hoped, Robin Hoods and Little Johns will be found making bulls with the Morris tube, instead of splitting wands with the arrow, over half the villages of England.—Country Gentleman and Land and Water.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Railroad Employees' Hours.

I call your attention to the need of passing the bill limiting the number of hours of employment of railroad employees. The measure is a very moderate one, and I can conceive of no serious objection to it. Indeed, so far as it is in our power, it should be our aim steadily to reduce the number of hours of labor, with as a goal the general introduction of an eight hour day. There are industries in which it is not possible that the hours of labor should be reduced, just as there are communities not far enough advanced for such a movement to be for their good, or, if in the tropics, so situated that there is no analogy between their needs and ours in this matter. On the isthmus of Panama, for instance, the conditions are in every way so different from what they are here that an eight hour day would be absurd, just as it is absurd, so far as the isthmus is concerned, where white labor cannot be employed, to bother as to whether the necessary work is done by alien black men or by alien yellow men. But the wage-workers of the United States are of so high a grade that alike from the merely industrial standpoint and from the civic standpoint it should be our object to do what we can in the direction of securing the general observance of an eight hour day.

Let me again urge that the congress provide for a thorough investigation of the conditions of child labor and of the labor of women in the United States. The horrors incident to the employment of young children in factories or at work anywhere are a blot on our civilization.

In spite of all precautions exercised by employers there are unavoidable accidents and even deaths involved in nearly every line of business connected with the mechanic arts. It is a great social injustice to compel the employee, or, rather, the family of the killed or disabled victim, to bear the entire burden of such an inevitable sacrifice. In other words, society shirks its duty by laying the whole cost on the victim, whereas the injury comes from what may be called the legitimate risks of the trade. Compensation for accidents or deaths due in any line of industry to the actual conditions under which that industry is carried on should be paid by that portion of the community for the benefit of which the industry is carried on—that is, by those who profit by the industry. If the entire trade risk is placed upon the employer, he will promptly and properly add it to the legitimate cost of production and assess it proportionately upon the consumers of his commodity. It is therefore clear to my mind that the law should place this entire "risk of a trade" upon the employer.

Capital and Labor Disputes.

Records show that during the twenty years from Jan. 1, 1881, to Dec. 31, 1900, there were strikes affecting 117,500 establishments, and 6,105,094 employees were thrown out of employment. During the same period there were 1,055 lockouts, involving nearly 10,000 establishments, throwing over 1,000,000 people out of employment. These strikes and lockouts involved an estimated loss to employees of $307,000,000 and to employers of $142,000,000, a total of $449,000,000. The public suffered directly and indirectly probably as great additional loss.

Many of these strikes and lockouts would not have occurred had the parties to the dispute been required to appear before an unprejudiced body representing the nation and, face to face, state the reasons for their contention. The exercise of a judicial spirit by a disinterested body representing the federal government, such as would be provided by a commission on conciliation and arbitration, would tend to create an atmosphere of friendliness and conciliation between contending parties.

Control of Corporations.

It cannot too often be repeated that experience has conclusively shown the impossibility of securing by the actions of nearly half a hundred different state legislatures anything but ineffective chaos in the way of dealing with the great corporations which do not operate exclusively within the limits of any one state. In some method, whether by a national license law or in other fashion, we must exercise, and that at an early date, a far more complete control than at present over these great corporations—a control that will, among other things, prevent the evils of excessive overcapitalization and that will compel the disclosure by each big corporation of its stockholders and of its properties and business, whether owned directly or through subsidiary or affiliated corporations. This will tend to put a stop to the securing of inordinate profits by favored individuals at the expense of the general public, the stockholders or the wage-workers. Our effort should be not so much to prevent consolidation as such, but so to supervise and control it as to see that it results in no harm to the people.

Combination of capital, like combination of labor, is a necessary element of our present industrial system. It is not possible completely to prevent it, and if it were possible, such complete prevention would do damage to the body politic. What we need is not vainly to try to prevent all combination, but to secure such rigorous and adequate control and supervision of the combinations as to prevent their injuring the public or existing in such form as inevitably to threaten injury for the mere fact that a combination has secured practically complete control of a necessary of life would under any circumstances show that such combination was to be presumed to be adverse to the public interest. It is unfortunate that our present laws should forbid all combinations instead of sharply discriminating between those combinations which do good and those combinations which do evil. Rebates, for instance, are as often due to the pressure of big shippers (as was shown in the investigation of the Standard Oil company and as has been shown since by the investigation of the tobacco and sugar trusts) as to the initiative of big railroads. Often railroads would like to combine for the purpose of preventing a big shipper from maintaining improper advantages at the expense of small shippers and of the general public. Such a combination, instead of being forbidden by law, should be favored. In other words, it should be permitted to railroads to make agreements, provided these agreements were sanctioned by the interstate commerce commission and were published. With these two conditions complied with it is impossible to see what harm such a combination could do to the public at large.

Inheritance and Income Tax.

The national government has long derived its chief revenue from a tariff on imports and from an internal or excise tax. In addition to these, there is every reason why, when next our system of taxation is revised, the national government should impose a graduated inheritance tax and, if possible, a graduated income tax.

I am well aware that such a subject as this needs long and careful study in order that the people may become familiar with what is proposed to be done, may clearly see the necessity of proceeding with wisdom and self-restraint and may make up their minds just how far they are willing to go in the matter, while only trained legislators can work out the project in necessary detail. But I feel that in the near future our national legislators should enact a law providing for a graduated inheritance tax by which a steadily increasing rate of duty should be put upon all moneys or other valuables coming by gift, bequest or devise to any individual or corporation. There can be no question of the ethical propriety of the government thus determining the conditions upon which any gift or inheritance should be received.

As the law now stands it is undoubtedly difficult to devise a national income tax which shall be constitutional. But whether it is absolutely impossible is another question, and it is possible it is most certainly desirable. The first purely income tax law was passed by the congress in 1891, but the most important law dealing with the subject was that of 1894. This court held to be unconstitutional.

The question is undoubtedly very intricate, delicate and troublesome. The decision of the court was only reached by one majority. It is the law of the land and of course is accepted as such and loyally obeyed by all good citizens. Nevertheless the hesitation evidently felt by the court as a whole in coming to a conclusion, when considered together with previous decisions on the subject, may perhaps indicate the possibility of devising a constitutional income tax law which shall substantially accomplish the results aimed at. The difficulty of amending the constitution is so great that only real necessity can justify a resort thereto. Every effort should be made in dealing with this subject, as with the subject of the proper control by the national government over the use of corporate wealth in interstate business, to devise legislation which without such action shall attain the desired end, but if this fails there will ultimately be no alternative to a constitutional amendment.

Industrial Training.

Our industrial development depends largely upon technical education, including in this term all industrial education, from that which fits a man to be a good mechanic, a good carpenter or blacksmith to that which fits a man to do the greatest engineering feat. The skilled mechanic, the skilled workman, can best become such by technical industrial education. The far reaching usefulness of institutes of technology and schools of mines or of engineering is now universally acknowledged, and no less far reaching is the effect of a good building or mechanical trades school, a textile or watchmaking or engraving school.

In every possible way we should help the wage-worker who toils with his hands and who must (we hope in a constantly increasing measure) also toil with his brain. Under the constitution the national legislature can do but little of direct importance for his welfare save where he is engaged in work which permits it to act under the interstate commerce clause of the constitution, and this is one reason why I so earnestly hope that both the legislative and judicial branches of the government will construe this clause of the constitution in the broadest possible manner.

The Farmer.

The only other persons whose welfare is as vital to the welfare of the whole country as is the welfare of the wage-workers are the tillers of the soil, the farmers. Several factors must co-operate in the improvement of the farmer's condition. He must have the chance to be educated in the widest possible sense, in the sense which keeps even in view the intimate relationship between the theory of education and the facts of life.

Organization has become necessary in the business world, and it has accomplished much for good in the world of labor. It is no less necessary for farmers. Such a movement as the grange movement is good in itself and is capable of a well high infuse further extension for good so long as it is kept to its own legitimate business. The benefits to be derived by the association of farmers for mutual advantage are partly economic and partly sociological.

Irrigation and Forest Preservation. Much is now being done for the states of the Rocky mountains and great plains through the development of the national policy of irrigation and forest preservation. No government policy for the betterment of our internal conditions has been more fruitful of good than this.

Divorce Legislation.

I am well aware of how difficult it is to pass a constitutional amendment. Nevertheless, in my judgment, the whole question of marriage and divorce should be relegated to the authority of the national congress. The change would be good from every standpoint. In particular it would be good because it would confer on the congress the power at once to deal radically and efficiently with polygamy, and this should be done whether or not marriage and divorce are dealt with. It is neither safe nor proper to leave the question of polygamy to be dealt with by the several states.

Merchant Marine.

Let me once again call the attention of the congress to two subjects concerning which I have frequently before communicated with them. One is the question of developing American shipping. I trust that a law embodying in substance the views or a major part of the views expressed in the report on this subject laid before the house at its last session will be passed. It seems to me that the proposed measure is as nearly unobjectionable as any can be.

The Currency.

I especially call your attention to the second subject, the condition of our currency laws. The national bank act has ably served a great purpose in aiding the enormous business development of the country, and within ten years there has been an increase in circulation per capita from $21.41 to $33.08. For several years evidence has been accumulating that additional legislation is needed. The recurrence of each crop season emphasizes the defects of the present laws. There must soon be a revision of them, because to leave them as they are means to incur liability of business disaster. Since your body adjourned there has been a fluctuation in the interest on call money from 2 per cent to 30 per cent, and the fluctuation was even greater during the preceding six months. The secretary of the treasury had to step in and by wise action put a stop to the most violent period of oscillation.

I do not press any special plan. Various plans have recently been proposed by expert committees of bankers. Among the plans which are possibly feasible and which certainly should receive your consideration is that repeatedly brought to your attention by the present secretary of the treasury, the essential features of which have been approved by many prominent bankers and business men. According to this plan, national banks should be permitted to issue a specified proportion of their capital in notes of a given kind, the issue to be taxed at 50 cents a rate as to drive the notes back when not wanted in legitimate trade. This plan would not permit the issue of currency to give banks additional profits, but to meet the emergency presented by times of stringency.

I do not say that this is the right system. I only advance it to emphasize my belief that there is need for the adoption of some system which shall be automatic and open to all sound banks so as to avoid all possibility of discrimination and favoritism.

The law should be amended so as specifically to provide that the funds derived from customs duties may be treated by the secretary of the treasury as he treats funds obtained under the internal revenue laws. There should be a considerable increase in bills of small denominations. Permission should be given banks, if necessary under settled restrictions, to retire their circulation to a larger amount than three millions a month.

Our Outlying Possessions.

I most earnestly hope that the bill to provide a lower tariff for or else absolute free trade in Philippine products will become a law. No harm will come to any American industry, and, while there will be some small but real material benefit to the Filipinos, the main benefit will come by the showing made as to our purpose to do all in our power for their welfare.

Porto Rican Affairs.

American citizenship should be conferred on the citizens of Porto Rico. The harbor of San Juan, in Porto Rico, should be dredged and improved. The expenses of the federal court of Porto Rico should be met from the federal treasury.

Hawaii.

The needs of Hawaii are peculiar. Every aid should be given the islands, and our efforts should be unceasing to develop them along the lines of a community of small freeholders, not of great planters with coolly tilled estates.

Alaska.

Alaska's needs have been partially met, but there must be a complete reorganization of the governmental system, as I have before indicated to you. I ask your especial attention to this. Our fellow citizens who dwell on the shores of Puget sound with characteristic energy are arranging to hold in Seattle the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. This exposition in its purposes and scope should appeal not only to the people of the Pacific slope, but to the people of the United States at large.

Not only must we treat all nations fairly, but we must treat with justice and good will all immigrants who come here under the law. Whether they are Catholic or Protestant, Jew or gentile, whether they come from England or Germany, Russia, Japan or Italy, matters nothing. All we have a right to question is the man's conduct. If he is honest and upright in his dealings with his neighbor and with the state, then he is entitled to respect and good treatment. Especially do we need to remember our duty to the stranger within our gates. It is the sure mark of a low civilization, a low morality, to abuse or discriminate against or in any way humiliate such stranger who has come here lawfully and who is conducting himself properly. To remember this is incumbent on every American citizen, and it is of course peculiarly incumbent on every government official, whether of the nation or of the several states.

I am prompted to say this by the attitude of hostility here and there assumed toward the Japanese in this country. This hostility is sporadic and is limited to a very few places. Nevertheless it is most disgraceful to us as a people, and it may be fraught with the gravest consequences to the nation.

I ask fair treatment for the Japanese as I would ask fair treatment for Germans or Englishmen, Frenchmen, Russians or Italians. I ask it as due to humanity and civilization. I ask it as due to ourselves, because we must act uprightly toward all men. I recommend to the congress that an act be passed specifically providing for the naturalization of Japanese who come here intending to become American citizens. One of the great embarrassments attending the performance of our international obligations is the fact that the statutes of the United States are entirely inadequate. They fail to give to the national government sufficiently ample power, through United States courts and by the use of the army and navy, to protect aliens in the rights secured to them under solemn treaties which are the law of the land. I therefore earnestly recommend that the original and civil statutes of the United States be so amended and added to as to enable the president, acting for the United States government, which is responsible in our international relations, to enforce the rights of aliens under treaties.

The Cuban Matter.

Last August an insurrection broke out in Cuba which it specially grew evident that the existing Cuban government was powerless to quell. Thanks to the preparedness of our navy, I was able immediately to send enough ships to Cuba to prevent the situation from becoming hopeless, and I furthermore dispatched to Cuba the secretary of war and the assistant secretary of state in order that they might grapple with the situation on the ground.

In accordance with the so called Platt amendment, which was embodied in the constitution of Cuba, I thereupon proclaimed a provisional government for the island, the secretary of war acting as provisional governor, until he could be replaced by Mr. Magdon, the late minister to Panama and governor of the canal zone on the isthmus. Troops were sent to support them and to relieve the navy, the expedition being handled with most satisfactory speed and efficiency. Peace has come in the island, and the harvesting of the sugar cane crop, the great crop of the island, is about to proceed. When the election has been held, and the new government inaugurated in peaceful and orderly fashion, the provisional government will come to an end.

The United States wishes nothing of Cuba except that it shall prosper morally and materially and wishes nothing of the Cubans save that they shall be able to preserve order among themselves and therefore to preserve their independence. If the elections become a farce and if the insurrectionary habit becomes confirmed on the island it is absolutely out of the question that the island should continue independent, and the United States, which has assumed the sponsorship before the civilized world for Cuba's career as a nation, would again have to intervene and to see that the government was managed in such orderly fashion as to secure the safety of life and property.

The Rio Conference.

The second international conference of American republics, held in Mexico in the years 1901-02, provided for the holding of the third conference within five years and committed the fixing of the time and place and the arrangements for the conference to the governing board of the bureau of American republics, composed of the representatives of all the American nations in Washington. That board discharged the duty imposed upon it with marked fidelity and painstaking care, and upon the courteous invitation of the United States of Brazil the conference was held at Rio de Janeiro, continuing from the 22d of July to the 29th of August last. Many subjects of common interest to all the American nations were discussed by the conference, and the conclusions reached, embodied in a series of resolutions and proposed conventions, will be laid before you upon the coming of the final report of the American delegates.

Panama Telp.

I have just returned from a trip to Panama and shall report to you at length later on the whole subject of the Panama canal.

The Algeiras Convention.

The Algeiras convention, which was signed by the United States as well as by most of the powers of Europe, superseded the previous convention of 1880, which was also signed both by the United States and a majority of the European powers. This treaty confers upon us equal commercial rights with all European countries and does not entail a single obligation of any kind upon us, and I earnestly hope it may be speedily ratified.

Sealing.

The destruction of the Phiblof island fur seals by pelagic sealing still continues. The herd, which, according to the survey made in 1874 by direction of the congress, numbered 4,700,000, and which, according to the survey of both American and Canadian commissioners in 1891, amounted to 1,000,000, has now been reduced to about 180,000. This result has been brought about by Canadian and some other sealing vessels killing the female seals while in the water during their annual pilgrimage to and from the south or in search of food.

The process of destruction has been accelerated during recent years by the appearance of a number of Japanese vessels engaged in pelagic sealing. Suitable representations regarding the incident have been made to the government of Japan, and we are assured that all practicable measures will be taken by that country to prevent any recurrence of the outrage.

We have not relaxed our efforts to secure an agreement with Great Britain for adequate protection of the seal herd, and negotiations with Japan for the same purpose are in progress.

The laws for the protection of the seals within the jurisdiction of the United States need revision and amendment.

Second Hague Conference.

In my last message I advised you that the emperor of Russia had taken the initiative in bringing about a second peace conference at The Hague. Under the guidance of Russia the arrangement of the preliminaries for such a conference has been progressing during the past year. Progress has necessarily been slow, owing to the great number of countries to be consulted upon every question that has arisen. It is a matter of satisfaction that all of the American republics have now, for the first time, been invited to join in the proposed conference.

Army and Navy.

It must ever be kept in mind that war is not merely justifiable, but imperative upon honorable men, upon an honorable nation, where peace can only be obtained by the sacrifice of conscientious conviction or of national welfare.

The United States navy is the surest guarantor of peace which this country possesses. I do not ask that we continue to increase our navy. I ask merely that it be maintained at its present strength, and this can be done only if we replace the obsolete and outworn ships by new and good ones, the equals of any afloat in any navy. To stop building ships for one year means that for that year the navy goes back instead of forward.

In both the army and the navy there is urgent need that everything possible should be done to maintain the highest standard for the personnel alike as for the officers and the enlisted men. I do not believe that in any service there is a finer body of enlisted men and of junior officers than we have in both the army and the navy, including the marine corps.

West Point and Annapolis already turn out excellent officers. We do not need to have these schools made more scholastic. On the contrary, we should never lose sight of the fact that the aim of each school is to turn out a man who shall be above everything else a fighting man.

There should soon be an increase in the number of men for our coast defenses. These men should be of the right type and properly trained, and there should therefore be an increase of pay for certain skilled grades, especially in the coast artillery. Money should be appropriated to permit troops to be muscled in body and exercised in maneuvers, particularly in marching.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Dr. Hays' Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effects are charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes. And the tablets simply distribute the congested blood pressure.

Prize your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet underground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present, alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, a series of diseases, each one assuming them to be such, prescribe pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician ignorant of the cause of suffering keeps up his treatment until large bills are made, and the suffering patient, gets no better. It is the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A woman's medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless. It has effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve tonic, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

When Saddles Were Unknown.
Early Greeks and Romans rode horses bareback. They regarded it as effeminate to ride in a saddle. The modern saddle, with pommel, crupper and stirrups, was unknown to the ancients. Nero gave out fancy coverings to his cavalry and the bareback riders of the German forests used to laugh at them. Saddles with trees came into use in the fourth century; stirrups three centuries later.

His Name Was on Envelope.
A man had a telephone put in his house and as he was expecting a letter from a friend he called up the post office and asked the clerk in charge if there was a letter there for him. The clerk asked him what his name was. He said: "Never mind what my name is; if there is a letter there for me, my name is on the envelope."

How Can They Help It?
